

The Romance of Modern Sieges – Edward Gilliat

The Romance of Modern Sieges ;
Describing the Personal Adventures, Resources, and Daring of Besiegers and Besieged in All Parts Of The World

Lively narratives of some of the great siege battles of war. The book was written before World War I, in 1908. Some of the narratives contain language which was common in 19th and early twentieth century usage but which listeners today may find offensive. Summary by david wales
